about me

ANGIE MCCOURT

Thank you for your interest. I thought I'd share a bit about me. I recently shifted from 27 years in the technology and retail industries to start my own business Authentic Me Revolution. I've since launched my Success + Mindset coaching practice, a podcast, Shifting Inside Out and a book Love Your Gifts: Permission to Revolutionize Authenticity in the Workplace. As a Success + Mindset coach I help clients shift their limiting beliefs and discover their elevated gifts so they can show up as their true self.

My podcast provides a platform for inspiring topics, hacks and guest speakers around authenticity, challenging status quo, personal power and living a purpose filled life. My book is similar in doing the internal work to shift to being more authentic and goes deeper into what I call elevated gifts (archetypes).

My speaking engagements can cover many topics from leadership, empowerment, personal motivation, strategies and goals to relationships and anything else in reference to my book. I have had many speaking engagements over my career and work in the community with my largest audience of 1000. I work well with groups in workshop settings to create synergy, engagement and offering a method to take away and integrate into self and work habits.

Best,
Angie

Engagement Success

Speaking engagements and workshops can be done in person or virtually via Zoom (depending on how many attendees).

Session size for speaking engagements can be unlimited, but for in-person workshops the preference is 20-30.

Session length for speaking engagements can be 40-70 minutes. Workshops depend on the topics and outcomes and can range from a 1/2 day to multi-day sessions.

Technology for workshops could be needed depending on the approach.

Availability is best planned out, but if you have a last minute event you wish to hold let's discuss to see how I can best support you.

If materials will be distributed during workshops it's best to ensure a committed headcount with enough notice for me to get materials printed.

Pre-Event

My goal is to understand the needs of your audience and prepare relevant content. If you have already identified a specific approach or are interested in one of my topics above we can work from there. I'll provide my bio if needed to be included in your communication.

At-Event

I will deliver sessions agreed upon and network with your team members. I will attend any ancillary events - such as receptions and dinners at your request. We will discuss specific on-site expectations during our pre-event planning call(s).

FAQ

ANSWERS TO THE MOST COMMONLY ASKED QUESTIONS

DO WE HAVE TO CHOOSE A TOPIC SUGGESTED OR CAN WE WORK ON A TOPIC RELEVANT TO THE OUTCOME WE ARE LOOKING FOR?

If one of the topics does not really fit what you are looking for we can have a conversation to better understand the outcome you would like your audience/team to experience or gain.

HOW CAN WE LEVERAGE YOUR BOOK IN A SPEAKING ENGAGEMENT?

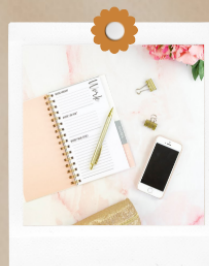

It would be great to offer your audience a copy of the book (I can offer deeper discounts for orders over 100 copies). There are 5 main key areas I can target in messaging around my book: 1. Limiting beliefs and how to reset mindset 2. Go deeper into elevated gifts (you can ask the audience to 'take the quiz' prior to the event) 3. Personal power and energy and how to balance them 4. Authenticity in the workplace and what it means. 5. Authentic servant leadership and how empathy is key.

CAN WE PURCHASE ADD-ONS FOR THE SAME PRICE AFTER OUR INITIAL ENGAGEMENT?

Yes you can even purchase them post-event. Just let me know and I'll provide the special pricing.

INFORMATION

Angie has impacted my life in so many ways.

She is a genuine visionary leader who has driven me to look deeper into my own true self, allowing me to find and lead with my best qualities, define my own future, and create a life that is the right balance for me.

As a Mom of four kids and an executive in IT, it's sometimes difficult to find and keep balance and harmony. Angie's guidance and self-practice of investing in yourself so you can take care of those around you is something that has stuck with me, and has led me to a greater peace and understanding of what I need to be successful and provide for those around me.

She pushed me to be my authentic self, both at work and at home, and that is a freedom that created trust, better relationships, confidence in myself, and overall success up to this point in my life. I'm forever grateful for her friendship, leadership, time, and investment in me."
